

Agricultural Research Technician Internship

Greater Yakima Valley Area in WA

This position requires lab and field work/experience in addition to working in research greenhouses.

Responsibilities include but not limited to:

- Soil and tissue collecting/sampling
- Light machinery operating
- Irrigation set up and maintenance
- Trial set up and maintenance
- Lots of walking on dirt terrain
- Lots of driving; must have a clean DMV / criminal record
- Lifting items/objects 50+ pounds
- Data collection/entry
- Punctuality is important and some mornings can be very early
- Digging. Lots of it.
- Willingness to work in elements such as hot weather, cold weather, rain, wind, etc.
- Propagation, planting, up-potting, harvesting
- Bilingual is helpful but not required
- Must be willing to work with organic ingredients: i.e., chicken/dairy byproducts, fish byproducts, food production byproducts
- Good attitude and attention to detail are critical

Job Types: Full-time, Internship

Pay: $16.00 – $17.00 per hour

Schedule: 8-10 hour shift; Monday to Friday; Limited weekend availability

Preferred Experience: Agriculture and / or Farming, minimum 1 year and / or Data collection, minimum 1 year

Questions or inquiries about this position please contact Marijane Medina on the True Organic Human Resource team.

Interested parties can submit a resume with references to Marijane Medina.

-
559-866-3001

mmedina@true.ag

-
Margaret McCoy

PNW R&D Agronomist

Cell 720-818-0805

mmccoy@true.ag