

Harvest Lab Intern - Custom Crush Winery

Artifex Wine Co, the leading custom crush winery in the Walla Walla Valley, is seeking Lab Interns to join our 2023 Harvest Team. A lab internship at Artifex exposes you to some of Washington's best winemakers and their decision-making process.

In the Artifex lab, you will have practical training on lab protocols, analysis techniques, and perform additions based on our client winemakers' preferences. A high level of concentration is expected in our fast-paced winery, as your work will integrate with cellar activity and have a direct impact on production.

We are looking for motivated, passionate team players who are excited to fully immerse themselves in harvest.
